Multiple Products Security Advisory - CVE-2022-26136, CVE-2022-26137, CVE-2022-26138

Dear customer, on the 20th of July 2022 10 PM CEST, Atlassian issued two Security Advisories for its on-premise software products and the Confluence app Questions for Confluence. The Cloud versions of the applications are not affected.

What you need to know

Atlassian has been made aware of a critical vulnerability in their on-premise software products via Arbitrary Servlet Filter Bypass and Additional Servlet Filter Invocation. Further details about the vulnerability are available in Multiple Products Security Advisory - 2022-07-20. The only current way to secure the applications, is updating to fixed versions.

Additionally Atlassian disclosed a vulnerability in the app Questions for Confluence due to a systemuser with hardcoded user credentials. Further details on the vulnerability can be found in Questions For Confluence App Security Advisory - 2022-07-20. Updating Questions for Confluence fixes this vulnerability.

What should I do? - Questions For Confluence App

Server & Data Center

You use the app Questions for Confluence in Confluence Server or Data Center.

Determine If You Are Affected

Determine if you are affected by searching for the `disabledsystemuser` user account. If this account does not show up in the list of active users, the Confluence instance is not affected.

Update the App

Update the Questions for Confluence app to a fixed version:

- 2.7.x >= 2.7.38 (compatible with Confluence 6.13.18 through 7.16.2)
- Versions >= 3.0.5 (compatible with Confluence 7.16.3 and later)

Workaround

Search for the `disabledsystemuser` user account and either disable it or delete it. For instructions on how to disable or delete an account (including an explanation of the differences between the two options), refer to:

- Delete or Disable Users | Atlassian Documentation

Cloud

You use Confluence Cloud.

You are not affected by this Security Advisory.

No need for action.

bitvoodoo Cloud

You use the app Questions for Confluence in Confluence Server or Data Center hosted with bitvoodoo.

bitvoodoo already updated Questions for Confluence in all Confluence installation hosted with bitvoodoo.

No need for action.
